

2010 SIPschool Design Symposium

The Inn at Charles Town

Charles Town, WV

Monday September 13, 2010

9:00am	Welcome and Introductions Al Cobb, SIPschool
9:15am	Designing with SIPs Jim DeStefano, P.E., AIA DeStefano and Chamberlain
10:15am	Turning CAD into CAM Terry Dieken, Extreme Panels
11:15am	SIP Design in 3D! Mark Schellenbarger, SIP Designer
12:15pm	Lunch at The Inn at Charles Town sponsored by
1:15pm	Design Disasters Paul Malko, Chief Engineer, Foard Panel
2:15pm	Code and Engineering Acceptance of Non-Wood SIPs Neal Wilkinson, NTA
3:15pm	Ventilation and Mechanicals for Super Insulated Homes Jason Morosko, VP Engineering, UltimateAir Inc

6:00pm BBQ Dinner at Broad View Farm sponsored by

Tuesday September 14, 2010

9:00am	SIP Structural Design Concepts and Details David Hourdequin, PE, President D. REMY & CO. - Heavy Timber Engineering
10:00a	Light Commercial Design Strategies with SIPs Todd Stokely, Project Manager, TEAM Industries
11:00a	Software That Compliments Super-Insulated Structures Rich Backus, GMB CGP, Timber Ridge Craftsmen, Inc.
12:00pm	Lunch at The Inn at Charles Town 5 Slides in 5 Minutes Present five slides that show a detail, situation, problem or solution that is worth sharing with the SIP industry. Open to all attendees, but space is limited and you must submit your images by September 8, 2010
1:00pm	Design Differences Based on Core Materials Chris Bloom, Murus
2:00pm	Things That Burn My A Al Cobb, Panelwrights
2:45pm	Hewlett Packard's Present Your Best in SIP Design Competition Prize Awards and Closing (submissions due no later than September 8 — see website for details)

